LE CARTEL STRIKES!

The Curtain went up on Act Three of the "Thrlla in Vanilla" last week. It turned out to be the most tempestuous scene yet in a spectacle that shows every indication of having the potential to wipe La Reta, the Maritime Reefer, The Grieco Factory and the ELI fiascos off the disaster map of CIs. Development forever.

It was a scene full of savagery and suspected chicanery. The JOURNAL featured prominently. So did the regularly insulted "son" of Atiu, Georges Kelly (right).

Who?

INSIDE we defend ourselves and Mr. Kelly AND give you our information and thoughts so YOU can do what no one else is prepared to do...ALLOW you freely to come to a decision which will effect your entire family for generations to come.

Also we pose the intriguing question...just who is the mystery "foreign partner" Charles Lehartel is bringing in at this late stage. We, in fact, are right behind the Vanilla Project and Mariri Parataingа's rationale for it. BUT, we insist on the facts, as landowners. AND...no one is going to ignore the Judge's words 2 weeks ago when it affects OUR family. And no one (especially foreigners) is going to take cheap shots at a member of OUR family.

"I do not read the JOURNAL. I am completely confused by the Vanilla Project. I am approaching Roger Malcolm because he is the only one who can help me since Charles Lehartel said he didn't want any more lawyers involved and left me 20 pages of technical legal English with instructions to sign them."

SIGNED STATEMENT - ATIU LANDOWNER.

EDITOR: The accusation by "big people" that the JOURNAL is causing confusion in people's minds is becoming as boring as it is false.

COME OFF IT CHARLIE

An open letter

Tahitians have an often well-merited reputation for arrogance towards the rest of the Pacific. This also applies, of course, to your French fellow citizens. This showed itself when your athletes refused to sleep on the floor like the rest of us at the Mini-Games. It shows in the gleeful record of disasters your press runs on the free nations of the Pacific.

One of our most respected journalists was hassled at Faaa airport because he had the word "journalist"on his passport. This arrogance manifested as fear.

But we accept it as your way. We would not dare to stand up in public, as you did here, and express ourselves on your media in Tahiti. We would be torn to shreds. Such is the arrogance of a petty colony.

But we love Tahiti. And the owner of this paper and her brother (a man who has assisted the CIs enormously in the last 3 years) are both Tahitians by birth and Atiuans by blood. And we will not accept that the Kelly family or a newspaper owned by the Kelly family is to be even commented on by a foreigner in this country. Freedom of speech is for us. Your country hasn't yet earnt it. Others here can judge whether your other actions this week are acceptable. You refused our last invitation to meet in Atiuan fashion ...without apology. I hope you will treat our land with more respect .

VANILLA III

The Editor

Lots of vested Vanilla interests have been having a poke at us this week. Fine. Free speech. Now it's our turn, folks!

"No, but seriously..."

The JOURNAL BANNER claims three things. It states that we are "INDEPENDENT", that we are a"revue"and that we are a "journal of opinion. Our style is "revue". Our models go back to the 18th. Century origins of modern papers and, in modern times, to the London "Private Eye" and the Parisian "Canard Enchaine." We express opinion in the editorialised manner of all journals of opinion. In everything we write, we are independent of all political parties. We like to think our weekly "revue" is broadly entertaining.....

Now that's a big intro, folks! But it's designed to help you understand that this week has been extremely difficult. How to handle the explosive events and emotions experienced this week by those involved in the multi-million dollar, confusion-plagued, six-year old Vanilla Project ? We have not been sure all week. So...deadline approaches and a decision has to be made. Therefore, at the risk of becoming boringly uptight and "heavy" we've decided to give you, as best we can, a serious analysis of the affair and its issues. Sorry and all that...

Take one petulant Tahitian entrepreneur niggled by an irreverant little local journal; take one hot-tempered local MP muttering dark Rabuka-esque musings about "foreign influences disrupting his foreign adventures; take a vicar with visions; add a couple of local planters back from a trip up the Papeete fast lane; stir with a spot of blackmail, a pinch or two of threats and a spoonful of troublemaking.....taste all that and you can get a small soupcon of what JOURNAL received this week by way of rumour, gossip, fact fiction and speculation.

Finally, throw in a brand-new, utterly mysterious "foreign partner" from "America" and we are back 18 months in the dark old Davis days when we all went chasing Bashouts, Marcooses, Phoenix Groups and assorted Koreans, Malays and characters last heard of up to their ankles in a barrel of concrete at the bottom of the Hudson River.

What the blazes IS going on, M. LeHartel? We've heard you've said things about M. Georges Kelly which aren't flattering. You have said things, we hear, about us which coming from a foreigner we won't put up with, We are told that you instructed landowner representatives that you "wanted them not to consult any more lawyers but to get on and sign."

We are told that you introduced a radically altered contract to be signed without consulting "any more lawyers" and that you introduced on to the scene a character called "my foreign partner" whose name was to be inserted without anyone knowing who he is.

These are all most peculiar goings on, M. Lehartel. Suddenly, by your own action you have made a lot of people worried and confused.

And...Oh No!..M. LeHartel...don't you dare try the Big Lie technique on us again ...WE ARE NOT THE ONES DOING THE CONFUSING... ..OH NO....

Six years you've been trying to get this off the ground. Then little old us comes along in the last three months and suddenly it's US who are doing the confusing!!

Whatever conning is going on...CONtrolling, CONdemning...CONfusing.. it's not US doing it, mon vieux.

It's not us who attacked without offering any chance of reply. It's not us who has chopped and changed stories. It's not us offering a buck a year per acre to Atiuan landowners or a contract of which they don't understand a syllable, some of them.

And it's not us who talk in noughts by the zillion and the need to get things done. We're just little people and plain, simple information. The sort of information which, when the hysterics of Atiu way, foreign way and all that nonsense is out of the way, amounts to human rights all over the black, brown, white, pink, blue and purple world.....

Like.....

1. YOU MATE...YOU THERE...ON MY LAND... ...who are you ?

2. WHAT ARE YOU DOING THERE ? AND WHO GAVE YOU THE RIGHT TO BE THERE etc.

3. AND WHO'S THIS FOREIGN PARTNER, EH?

We freely offer you the chance to reply in these pages.

Simply. Just for the little landowners who are giving you 35 years of their land. And, because you and they will be dead when it's all over, for their children who will be wondering why their grandparents hadn't got the gumption to stand up for their rights in 1987.

Georges Kelly - -smeared ?

Simple. That's us. Simple enough to believe what a High Court Judge told us two weeks ago. "Watch out for your land. You're to blame if you lose it."

So far, we support the vanilla scheme. We support Atiu. We support the island's elected leader. We support Clarke's Inc. So far, we just don't support you. Because you've given us no reason to.

We hope to hear from you. You going to hear from us. After we've heard from M. Kelly about some of the insults about him that have been floating around Atiu the last three days.

Your letters

We received a lot or criticism this week. And that's good. Long live Free Speech. And even if you want to rip us to bits, we'll print you fair and square...pen name, real name...whatever you like. Unfortunately, most of those who chose to have a lash at the JOURNAL hadn't got the guts to put it in print but used their big positions to force their views on the little people.

We'd be well into burning witches still if some of them had their way. What a shame the missionaries were christian. It would have suited our community bullies so much better if they'd been Muslems and had the right to stone adulterers to death or chop your balls off if you started to behave sort of human, like.

Anyway, amid the gloom, a few pieces of oral literature kept the free flow of information running. Mariri Paratainga talked with us for over an hour off the record on many matters including the media. CAC Moe Boaza arranged the interview for us. Rev Arioka gave us two hours of his time to discuss his "rubbish" comments. Nga Vainerere was fearlessly frank. Our writers turned up with many stories. Nga tanga kept her novel going. So, top marks to all of them, whether they support us or not.

AND....John Herrmann phoned in to offer continued encouragement and Tepou Boaza added his welcome words of encouragement too.

Not a bad week, after all.

Ada Rongomatane Ariki of Atiu.... ..centre of a storm of controversy.

No

Unfortunately, the only clear impression emerging from last week when we offered up the High Court ruling on the ALI co-operative was ...fear. On both sides. Fear of saying a word. Match abandoned owing to the state of development. This week, try "NOINOI"! $200 p.e. charged to the Catholics for rent by the Ariki. Right or wrong?

It's all bound up in the question of lifestyle. Even the Secretary of Education used the expression last week in Pravda. And that gives it some official standing, at least.

The point is that if we're all going to get our share of the lifestyle the good Coalition governments are putting up for grabs (and leading by example) then we've got to look around and start cashing in on some assets.

And the leading asset most of us have is land in our possession.

Ever since Mr. Williams arrived back in the 1820's with his rollicking tales of how Jehosaphat begat Jeroboom or words to that effect the people have been handing over their land like cents in the collection plate. And the people have knelt back and hoped they had made a confirmed booking for a suite up aloft in the hereafter with a video and an uninterrupted view of the Elysian Fields at sunset.

Well, that's all very well and may guarantee a good deathstyle. But it's lifestyle the people are after these days. And lifestyle should have a price...since everything that adds up to a good lifestyle does. And that price can't be met unless we also put a price on everything we have. It doesn't fit well with the happy, smiling heaven-on-earth bit...but it's the only way for the people to get a bit of the heaven on earth stuff.

Land is valuable. It has a price. And good on our Ariki Vaine for leading the way and starting to set a decent sort of value on what up to now, like muga, we've given away for nothing.

Whatever the Ariki Vaine is, was or may have been in a dubiously recorded history which in real terms dates from 1919 (when the Land Court decided who were or were not Atiuans), one fact is clear and that is that Mrs. Ariki Vaine a.k.a. Ada Nicholls is human.

Now it is not in any was as easy for Mrs. Ada Nicholls to swap roles and become Te Ariki Vaine as it is for Elisabeth Regina to slip into her swamp skirt and become Liz Battenberg your friendly neighbour from up the castle.

Liz has the wherewithal (as the richest woman in the galaxy) to do and be what she likes and it costs her perhaps the suppression of a public expletive or two to be able to set an example to one and all.

But be that as it may, our Ada (bills, petrol, tins of meat and the whole glittering Atiuan lifestyle apart) IS the Ariki Vaine...AND whatever she does sets an example which the rest of us peasants can use as an excuse for whatever WE do.

Well, Te Ariki Vaine has decided to go to court and up the rent on the Catholic Mission to unheard-of levels.

O.K. So now, it is fair go for the rest of us to demand the highest price we can get for the land. So stuff you all, the Vanilla People (for example) are going to pay through their Tahitian noses...even if it's all for the good of Atiu.

And so, like it or not, Mrs Ariki Ada Vaine Nicholls has given us a lead. What's sauce for the Ariki is at least a dollop of ketchup for the tenant.

what do you think ?

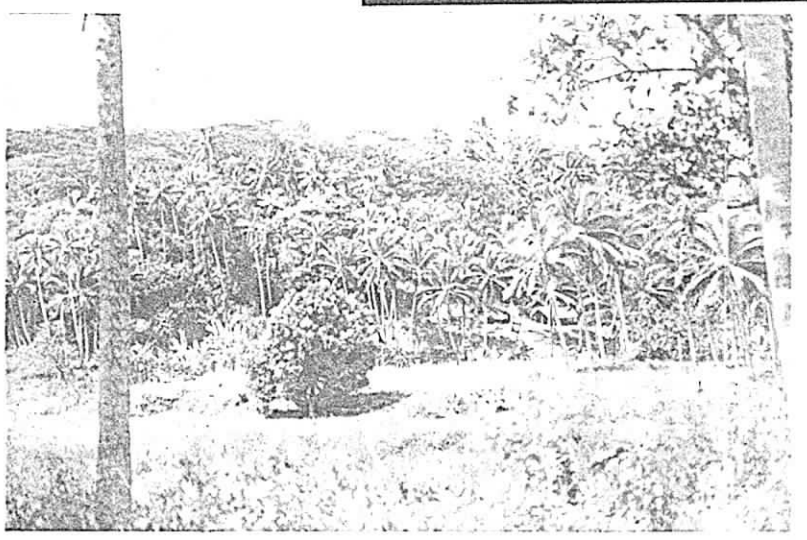
The virgin land of Atiu...10 million years old! A chance now for development ....maybe!



our Vanilla Adventure

The whole survey of the latest moves in the Atiu Vanilla Project was put together just before printing. Six reporters were involved in putting it together. Nine hours of interviews and two hours of meetings were spent before the whole approach to the very important events of the week was decided upon. The result, we hope, is responsible journalism, strong opinion, accurate research and an article in three parts which will be of service to the people of Atiu involved and of interest to all the people of the Cook Islands.

Finally, as always, a declaration of any special interest involving the JOURNAL or its management. Owner Terupo Kelly is the sister of Georges Kelly, a figure involved in part of the story. She is also a landowner involved in the Vanilla Incorporation. Neither she nor the staff of the JOURNAL are Vanilla Corporation shareholders nor does anyone associated with the JOURNAL stand to gain or lose from the affairs of the Vanilla Corporation.

BACKGROUND: Negotiations have taken place for a reported six years between Charles Lehartel, a director of Ledarco Ltd. of Tahiti and Cook Islands parties with a view to undertaking a multi-million dollar vanilla project. Step One was finally taken in early 1983 when Mr. Ledarco signed a Heads of Agreement with the then CIP government. Basically, Ledarco was to be given exclusive rights for the marketing and exporting of vanilla from the Cook Islands for 35 years and the Cook Islands government was to facilitate the incorporation of land for the purpose of growing vanilla on Atiu. After the signing of the Heads of Agreement, affairs moved to Atiu where, after several meetings, steps were taken to incorporate such land. In 1984, the Atiu Vanilla Corporation was formed with a committee of seven chaired by Mr. M. Paratainga (subsequently to become MP.) Since that time little occurred until in May this year, experts from the Tahitian Ministry of Agriculture appeared and set up an experimental plot on the Areii section. After interviewing many landowners and interested parties, the JOURNAL detected many areas of confusion in the minds of the people. This impression was confirmed when we interviewed Mr. Kelly, Minister of Agriculture, Tahiti. Mr. Lehartel returned once more last week and in a dramatic landowners meeting criticised the JOURNAL and met with the 1984 committee members.

Some of those members have reported to us that Mr. Lehartel appears to have significantly altered the 1984 leasing agreement, introduced new clauses, stipulated the inclusion of a new, unknown "foreign partner" (believed to be an as yet unknown American) and, allegedly with the support of MP Mariri Paratainga advised landowners that they do not want people bothering to involve lawyers again but (quote one committee member) to get on and sign it without wasting any more time.

THE JOURNAL OFFERS THE FOLLOWING EVALUATION OF THE SITUATION AS WE SEE IT IMPARTIALLY...

1. The land along the S-W coast of Atiu is incorporated in spite of what anyone else might think. A quick look at the Land Court records on Atiu shows this. The confusion as to whether the Vanilla Incorporation exists is understandable. It has not bothered to hold any AGM's during its three/year existence, nor for that matter any legally called SGM's. Furthermore even the Land Court itself seems confused as it has been granting occupation rights on incorporated land without the consent of the incorporated body.

OPENING

Judge Dillon announced earlier this year that he was bringing the High Court Judgment on ELI to Atiu so that the people could understand how the law worked. THAT was part of self-government. Even earlier several island leaders attended a talk on Development by Ministry of Development scholarship graduate, Nicky Lewis during which they asked for advice on the basic principles of Co-Operative development. Last week the Chairman of the Island Council met with the US Peace Corps director to discuss Agricultural developments especially in relation to Co-operative work. All three, experts in their field, one of them trained through the CIs tax-payer had one message.....

IT SEEMS ESSENTIAL THAT THE LANDOWNERS OF ATIU FIND OUT WHAT THAT IS!

INCORPORATION

22nd March, 1984.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE AND LANDS

"Order of Incorporation in respect of the 10 blocks set out in accordance with the resolutions passed by the owners of those blocks on the 2nd March 1984. The Committee of Management shall comprise the 7 people named in the resolution. Also confirm that Nooapii Tearea though living on Rarotonga and working for Justice Department should be a member. Mrs Thompson has a Occupation Right dated 9/7/1970 on the Tiroia block. Her land has not been surveyed; is included in this order; Mr Tylor is to negotiate for an acceptably substituted occupation right for Mrs Thompson somewhere else on this block. If Mrs Thompson can't be satisfied she is entitled to apply to the Court under Section 19 for exclusion of her original occupation right from the Incorporation. The question of appointing advisors to be a matter for the Committee to decide. That the amending legislation referred to shall include provisions for a 2 year term as committeemen; Lease proposed to be for 35 years with rent reviews every 5 years."

Landowners, shareholders, members of the Atiu Vanilla Corporation.....

YOU are responsible
YOU have a duty to seek information for yourself.
YOU have a right to know everything.
YOU are the Big People.

You are about to ignore everything and, if you do, the overwhelming odds are that your co-operative will collapse....like all the others in the Pacific (every single one!) which has refused to take the first step towards self-reliance...seek information!

OBJECTS

The objects of your Co-Operative are, we state, quite simple....to lease land to Ledarco in accordance with the 1983 CI Government Heads of Agreement between Government and Ledarco.

Board of Management

Your committee under the law, we believe, is defunct and has no standing in law. There has been no AGM for YOU to elect YOUR office bearers

ADMINISTRATION

Your committee of management named in the resolution.. Their job is to receive YOUR instructions and implement them prior to reporting back to you. To the best of our knowledge, they have met (at least this year) ONLY in response to Ledarco...on Ledarco's terms.

INCOME AND EXPENDITURE STATEMENT

None is available, we understand. Ledarco may be in a position to send you bills or offset its costs against YOUR income.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Several verbal reports have been given. We know of no written report to which shareholders can refer. Very probably, any one of them could have a crack at winding you up with a fair chance of success. Disturbing because Ledarco might be in a position to sue you..

BALANCE SHEET

There is none that we can find.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

There is none as is required by law.

THE ~~ATIU~~ WAY loser's

As things stand, we believe you have no hope of running a successful co-operative. You exist to provide Ledarco with land. Any benefits for you, you have to obtain by negotiation. The Co-Op is challengeable in law. Ledarco have altered their original contract. It's up to you. The Atiu Way would be to do nothing much... That may turn out the losers' way!

IT IS ENTIRELY UP TO YOU..NO ONE ELSE!!!

A STEP FORWARD ?

A LEASING GUIDE

It all started a long time ago

DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS:

Few, we feel, can now seriously challenge our earlier conclusion that the whole thing is surrounded in astounding confusion...and a confusion (come on, folks...) in no way occasioned by the JOURNAL.

Putting this aside and the "mess" we believe now exists, the question is.... what can be done to restore the Vanilla Scheme to proper legality by the Atiuan side of it before, one day, it all ends up (maybe like ELI after as much as 15 years) in accusations, hatred and deep resentment.

And, this time, (don't believe anyone who says otherwise) it will be without the land back!

An Annual General Meeting has to be called. (Don't believe us, check with any lawyer or Norman George or any respected CIs. figure e.g. Tui Short, John Tierney etc etc.) Required by the laws and regulations governing the body are the accounts, the minutes of the last and first meeting, an auditor appointed, the resignation of one third of the committee members and election of replacements. Finally the new proposals reported to us to have come from a NEW COMPANY composed of parts of the old Ledarco need to be discussed and the shareholders give direction to their committee on what they want done.

The current situation whereby the investing company and the Incorporation seem to be giving orders to the shareholders is preposterous and only occurs because of ignorance on the part of the people.

The sudden re-interest by M. Lehartel, Mr. Paratainga, the Island Council and other prominent persons in the vanilla scheme requires a legal Vanilla Incorporation (which we believe it hasn't got at the moment) otherwise the threats of action by angry shareholders may probably bust the Vanilla Incorporation for almost the same reasons that caused the liquidation of ELI.

CONCLUSION: The JOURNAL is concerned as we are sure government will be, by reported pressure being put on the old (and legally defunct, we think) committee of the Vanilla Incorporation to sign a new lease document without consulting a lawyer, without referring back to their shareholders (in a lease document, mark you, which closes access to fishing grounds - just like in Tahiti!),, and all for a peppercorn rental these next five years of $1.00 a year for about 800 acres....is we believe NOT why the people have self-government.

Three arguments are being used locally to justify the alleged astonishing lack of legality and the current moves to operate outside the conditions of the Societies Registration Act. All three are powerfully rhetorical. All three are extremely convenient for "big" people and for M. Lehartel. All three, we submit, are wrong and will only be of benefit to the leasing company.

ARGUMENT ONE:

M. Lehartel will go away if we don't sign quick, after six years.

JOURNAL: M. Lehartel will not go away if the scheme is any good. That is a good business tactic. M. Lehartel has no duty towards educating Atiuans but it would seem to be in his interest to help establish a sound legal incorporation if it is time he is worried about. However, the present situation is probably much more suitable for him as he seems to be calling all the shots.

ARGUMENT TWO:

The scheme is for the long term benefit of our children and grandchildren.

JOURNAL: Fine. If you have done your Homework and that's your decision. So, in that case, it would be best not to sell your grandchildren short. It would seem that their interests are best protected by acting in accordance with CIs. law...as BOTH political parties have done.. and as you can surely bet Mr. Lehartel is doing.

ARGUMENT THREE:

If we don't like it, we can withdraw our land at any time.

JOURNAL: Complete and arrant nonsense. Once your lease is signed, your land is gone for 35 years. Remember, you did not form (unfortunately)to be a co-operative growing vanilla...you were formed in order to lease land to M. Lehartel in accordance with commitments made by the CIs. Government. When you've signed the lease, that's it. If it goes wrong, YOU cannot just take your land back. Luckily if it does go wrong, you won't be around to explain to your grandchildren why you struck out!

NEWS NOTEBOOK

(Atiu Office)

Seeking urgent contact with Atiu MP and Minister of Foreign Affairs Norman George in Auckland last week was CIs scholarshipper Nicky Lewis. Mr. George was on his way back from international talks on Development with the French government while the 24 year post-graduate student at Auckland University was seeking a recommendation for his application for a prestigious Rhodes Scholarship in Economic Geography at Oxford University U.K.

The meeting was due to be arranged by Tepou Boaza of the Rarotonga Atiu Office who was trying to contact Mr. George in Auckland.

Nicky Lewis (son of JOURNAL editor David Lewis) is currently completing MA research on Atiuan Household economics.

Disaster struck the Mapumai Meeting House Workers' Feast last Friday. Within two hours of the opening, 7 workers were in hospital on drip through food poisoning. Health Department officials told the JOURNAL that contaminated tinned meat or home water supplies were suspected.

A host of court appearances is predicted following the introduction of WOF regulations for Atiu vehicles next month.

This is our first estimate of the effect of the new policy unless MOW can cope with a spate of vehicle assessments. Police Department instructions are to give one month's grace from 21.9.87, a Police spokesman told the JOURNAL. After that, summons will start.

AGRICULTURE

Papa Tu to tell----

As reported last week, a major development is soon to be announced by the Education Department in the field of Agriculture.

Although details will have to await finalisation by Secretary of Education, Tuingariki Short and Curriculum Adviser, a local announcement of progress to date is due to be delivered this week by Island Council Chairman, Mr. Teiotu Tangatapoto.

Mr. Tangatapoto has just returned from a week of talks with the Education Department and the US Peace Corps Director for the Pacific, Mr. John Rybsky.

At this stage, it is known that plans are extremely ambitious and involve possibly all Nga-Pu-Toru Colleges and Mangaia College.

Mr. Tangatapoto, who had left briefed with extensive papers prepared in both English and Maori by Atiu College, returned last week expressing confidence that plans for the development of secondary and tertiary Agricultural training programmes for students were well advanced.

"Mr. Tangatapoto has done marvellous job representing Atiuan education at the highest national level, commented a College spokesman, "we are all looking forward to hearing what news he has brought back."

The spokesman also expressed appreciation to the Department and the Peace Corps for this "major initiative in an area where we have longed to see a positive breakthrough."

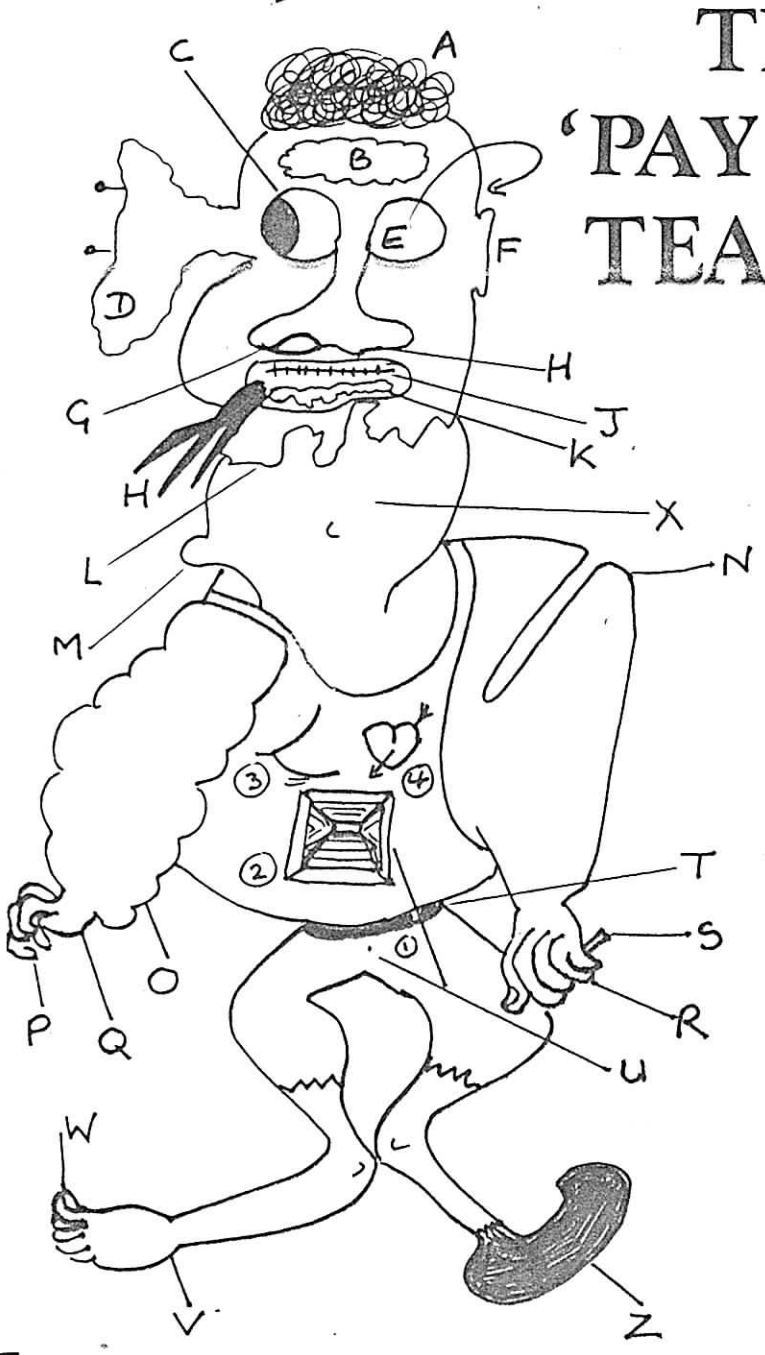
FIVE STAR LITTLE PEOPLE

The 10 year explosion of O.Is. Education since the late 1970's has now left many students like these Atiu College Lower 6ths (right) -quite well-equipped, armed with an up-to-date curriculum and a clear path to scholarship success...BUT facing a desperate situation in teaching. For them, at best it is a choice between a less than adequately qualified local teacher or an overseas substitute who can't speak Maori and is here for a couple of years at the most.

THE A TO Z OF ...

THE 'PAYSICK' TEACHER



The JOURNAL believes that the current teachers' salary crisis is far deeper than either CITI (the Teachers' Union) or government wish to face up to. The present rallying cry of support for the so-called "basic teacher" is populist and no threat to anyone except the PSC who will have the unpopulist task of letting Cabinet know what it will all cost. The heart-rending rhetoric surrounding the basic teachers case is all good fun (see cartoon) but will do nothing to solve education's profounder crisis areas. They will only respond to a massive hike in the pitiful 13% of overall budget spent on education.

(GARLIC)

Garlic (allium sativum) is nature's best internal intestinal antiseptic. It is a small perennial bulbous herb having a strong smell owing to having a sulphur-containing volatile oil. It has excellent medicinal value.

-Hypertension & Obesity are common local problems and can be controlled to an extent, especially their complications...when garlic cloves are used generally for eating. It selectively reduces the fats in the blood (cholestoral) which deposits in in the blood vessels causing high blood pressure, heart attacks and strokes.

-It is also an effective adjuvant in the treatment of rheumatic and muscular pains. It is a good anti-inflammatory and can help giddiness and sore eyes (if eaten)

-It is a good stimulant and tonic for the respiratory system, especially the lungs and the bronchial tubes.

-It is a good carminative and digestive. Excessive gas production and bowel pain can be relieved or prevented by its use. It is a good intestinal antiseptic and promotes healing in cases of ulcers.

-It stimulates and tones the liver and gall bladder thus improving the digestion of food. It also improves the appetite when depressed.

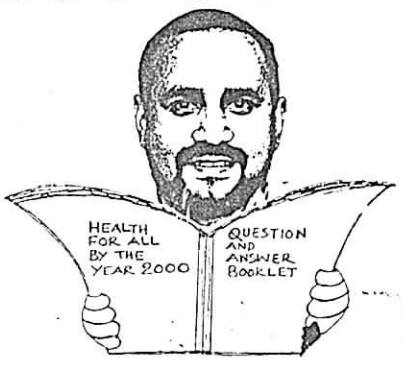
-For all the above, garlic cloves can be taken raw (one or two once/twice daily with meals) or can be cooked in vegetables or pickles can be made and used to taste. It can be cooked in all fish and meat preparations.

-The cloves can be kept in garlic and used accordingly with meals.

-The green leaves can also be used for mild effects, especially to aid digestion. Meats etc can be garnished with the green leaves. These green leaves can also be cut up and sprinkled on salads

DEAR DOCTOR ...

— Medicine —



QUESTION-

Why do doctors advise people to avoid overweight and obesity and how can one tell if one is obese or not ?

Early deaths are more common in obese people. Obese people with diabetes millitus have 5 times the chance of early death than people at normal body weights. Similarly, those with coronary artery disease (heart attack) die almost twice as commonly at an early age if they are obese. Hypertensive heart disease victims, if obese, have 2½ times more chance of dying early. Early deaths due to strokes are more common in the obese. Digestive disease like gall bladder and colonic disease will lead to an early death in the obese at 2½ times the normal rate.

So, to avoid early death in cases of suffering from one or more of the diseases mentioned above, one should avoid being obese by reducing weight.

In the case of obese people, there are more chances of having a disability in the form of or as a consequence of one or more of the following.

Both Sexes: psychological disturbances, breathlessness, ankle swelling arthritis, skin irritation, varicose veins, gall stones and gall bladder disease, hiatus hernia, constipation, hyperlipidemia, coronary artery disease, hypertension, diabetes mellitus, cerebrovascular accidents (strokes), post operative infections, poor wound healing and renal disease.

IN FEMALES: Menstrual irregularities and excessive bleeding, hirsutism (hair on face) endometrial cancer and breast cancer.

So, to avoid all these diseases and complications arising out of these, doctors advise people to maintain an optimum weight.

Now, in order to know whether one is obese or not - remember, when people start calling you "fatso" or "Incredible Hulk" or "Bud Spencer" or "Drum", "Barrel", "bull" etc etc....consult your doctor!

However, if you love Maths...take your weight in kg's, and divide it by your height in cm's squared. If the value is over 30 for females and 32 for males, you are definitely obese and should consult your doctor. Values from 20-25 are considered normal. Watch it if you are going over 25.

SEE NEXT WEEK...for how to maintain optimal weight and reduce weight...AND consult your doctor.

Arts & entertainment

In this the 4th episode of Nga Tanga's autobiographical look at a Cook Islands childhood, we are given a fascinating glimpse of NZ Intermediate School life in terms of what matters to the children. Whatever the children may be there for in the eyes of the teachers, to the children, even from 11 years old, success in the eyes of their friends is all important and as NZers, that chance is offered first and foremost through sport...or rather... winning at sport!

PART 4

by

NGA TANGA

The following year, I attended Pasadena Intermediate school. I was then eleven years old.

My school life was an exciting adventure that I wish now I could relive over and over again.

In the first term, we were given jobs to do around the school. This was the time to get to know everyone in the class as there was a mixture of primary students from various schools.

The second term, however, held the promise of secret enjoyment for there was to be a dance!

I remember when my best friend and I went to the dance. For me, it was to be a night I would never forget.

On the stage was the DJ for the night and he was surrounded by records and cassettes as well as his instrumental gigs.

It sure was a night to remember as we all boogied to the sound of the DJ.

As the night progressed, the hall continued to get crowded. I remember thinking it was "fantastic"! Boppers showed off their technique and disco dancers danced their night away.

Apart from the dance, I can remember it was also the time for the netball selections. I was chosen for the team and played in the position of Goal Attack.

We were very successful that year and came second in our Grade, losing only to a School called Sacred Heart.

In the third term though, we had our greatest success.

It was time for the softball season. I was chosen to play in the 'A' team.

One Thursady, our softball teams, girls and boys left to go to Wesley Intermediate for a tournament.

We were dressed in our white knickerbockers and sports T-shirts with our school name on the front. Our girls' team was the only one with a uniform and we were proud of it.

I was the catcher.

When we arrived, we hurried from the bus, very conscious of the stares from the other school.

All day we played as well as we could. And by the end of the day, we emerged winners.

There were trophies to be presented before ending the visit.

We grinned with pride when our boys took their trophy. Then it came to the Girls' Trophy and Pasadena, us, were also winners. We cheered loudly, especially our boys, as we made our way up to collect our trophies...our treasured trophies.

Thus we became Western District champions in softball. Surprisingly, we, the girls, were also given a trophy for being the best dressed softballers for the year.

The last term was also a success for the boys.

When it was time for the indoor basketball season, the boys did well enough to top all the other schools.

But our girls did not quite fulfil our dream. We came second as Ponsoby Intermediate beat us.

At least, though, we had made friends with lots of girls from other schools.

By the end of the year, I had really enjoyed myself and made friends with many girls and boys from all over Auckland.

The only regret was that my best friend was not "into" sports. She did not want to participate in any sorts of games.

The year was full of events. And full now of happy memories which I treasure very much.

The following year I entered Form Two at the same school...

This week...a round-up from our Resident Troublemakers out there in Darkest Melanesia.....

Brother in a huff

Rat Sir Kamikaze Martyr is understood to be really miffed because the Clawless Hawke and the Shorte Lange have reduced his mighty standing in the eyes of posterity by saying he had naughtily helped set up Smokin' Joe Rambugger's recent coup in Suva.

"Disgusting," said the Big Rat, currently riding a wave of Pacific-wide sympathy for the Fiji Tribal Chiefs determined efforts to haul their country back into the thirteenth century.

Main evidence in support of a Rat-Rambugger connection seems to be the much discussed Rambugger-Rat-Infernal Waters golf game the day before the coup. Waters I., believed to be Chuck Norris clone, is Resident Top Fink in the CIA and goes around doing this sort of thing for a living. Rambugger is believed to have organised the coup in answer to a Waters quip on the short dog-leg fourth that neither Rat nor Rambugger seemed capable of hitting the side of the National Stadium and he couldn't understand why they didn't stick to rucking each other in the scrum and so on.

The basis of Mr. S. Lange's anti-Rat rhetoric is believed to be a report handed in by an SIS agent having it away with his Aussie counterpart in the bunker on the ninth at the very moment a Rat-Rambugger conference was being held to discuss this insult to National honour.

"He says you are a dumb ox, Ram," declared the Martyr.

"Huh!" grunted the Ram, "I show him."

And thus events quickly followed upon events.

Our Resident Trouble maker in Suva says that he sees no justification in the NZ-Aus leaders attitude and reports indicate that Rat Sir Kamikaze took no part in the coup other than that already indicated by Unterobergrueppenfuhrer Rambugger himself.

"Rat was entirely restricted to planning the coup," said Ram when confronted by our former roving troublemaker.

PLAYER OF THE MONTH:

Our Parisian brothers and sisters at Le Canard Enchaine recently squeezed un troublemaker inside Gaston Flosse's quiet little Ministerial hideaway...all provided by the state for their very special Secretary of State for Pacific Affairs for him to solve the problems of his little island peoples in Polynesia and Melanesia.

Like all of us, Flosse has difficulty getting down to serious work without adequate office space. So, for six months, a squad of Paris MOW men set about turning the Hotel de Broglie on St. Dominic's Street into a ministry suitable for working on the various problems caused back here under the coconuts.

Whenever passing through Paris, the Secretary now has a Ministry with luxurious appointments including a gold leaf painting, furniture provided by the State, museum paintings, red carpets and so on and so on in the in a style rapidly being accepted in modern art books as "Third World Politician-style".

All the bills, of course, for M. Flosse's expenses in decorating his Ministry in the manner to which a son of Rikitia is accustomed, are sent to the Paris Government Exchequer.

It is understood that any passing islander is very welcome to drop in.

How to make sure

French Minister for DOM-TOM (the French Empire) St. Bernard le Ponce is reportedly overjoyed with the results of the Kanaky referendum but has admitted that greater Melanesian participation would be desirable next time. It is understood that all new settlers are to be issued with very dark sun-tan oil and big bushy wigs as a qualification to vote in future referendums.

VISLANDS Business

Richard Naidu of Islands Business, press secretary to the Fiji PM, Dr. Bavadra was beaten up last week by Taukei bandits.

"A good job, too", reports our Suva Troublemaker from his desk in the Military Barracks cell-block, Suva.

Unterobergrueppenfuhrer Rambugger is reported to have stated that "Mr Naidu holds dual NZ-Fiji citizenship. When he takes the trouble to revoke his NZ citizenship and be a Fijian I will guarantee his safety and arrest him for sedition."

THE JOURNAL & THE (Last) WORD

Outspoken CICC Minister Rev. T. Arioka caused a few eyebrows to be raised at last week's Vanilla Meeting when, closely following the opening prayer for peace, brotherhood, tolerance and all that sort of stuff, he launched into an Islamic style tirade against the Great Satan JOURNAL.

The people's padre was in good voice.

"It's RUBBISH!" he howled, according to the man-on-the spot gossips who constitute our eagle-eared reporting squad.

We called upon the good pastor to check.

"Yes," he confirmed, "the JOURNAL is rubbish."

"Have you read it," we inquired.

"Of course not, " intoned the virulent vicar. We parted good fine friends.

The sermon given last Sunday by the Rev. Arioka was rubbish.

The JOURNAL extends a "Welcome Back" to the PM and Foreign Affairs Minister. Dr. Robati and Norman George's European tour of aid negotians which included the celebrated $13m. loan from the government of France, we believe, marks the most significant shift in CI Foreign policy since self-government.

What lies behind it?

How is it tied in with national economic strategy ?

Have we exchanged Development for Self-Sufficiency for Development for Instant Gratification ?

Is there such a thing as "economic indepemdence" ?

Why the JOURNAL gives support for the Robati-George-Davis initiative ?

And...where we have grave reservations...
